

South Yorkshire & Humber Group

Help from the industry, for the industry

Use your smartphone camera to scan the above QR code

Don't miss out on important Health and Safety updates and access to useful resources

The South Yorkshire and Humber Working Well Together Group (WWT) is part of a national campaign to help reduce death and injury in the construction industry. It is aimed at helping smaller businesses and organisations. The Health & Safety Executive is heavily involved in the Working Well Together initiative.

